HONORABLE JUDGE FORRESTER
UNITED STATES DISTRICT FOR
THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA
75 SPRINGS ST, ROOM 2211
ATLANTA, GA 30303

Dear Judge Forrester:

My name is George Daniels and I write this letter in regards to my motion to reduce sentence under 18 U.S.C 3582 pending before your court since mid May. Because I haven't heard anything from the Court even in the form of a show cause order to the government, I just wanted to write you personally, requesting that some action be taken in my case before the onslaught of crack cocaine motions inundate the Court.

As you may remember I was getting up in age when I appeared before you as a defendant, and now with my health fast deteriorating rapidly. Last year I had a stroke and to be honest it is taking its toll on me. So if possible I just ask that if the Court could see fit, to issue a ruling on my 3582 as promptly as the Court finds suitable.

Sincerely

George Daniels
